

Mae is a passionate Pop, Pop Rock & Country Pop singer-songwriter who also plays the piano and guitar. She is currently in her final year at LASALLE College of the Arts for a BA(Hons) Degree in Music. She recently participated in a Songwriting Competition through July-September 2018 and won first place for her ballad titled “Brave The Day” as a collaboration, where she wrote the lyrics and melody. The song will soon be professionally arranged, recorded and distributed by 6 Strings Studios. She was also invited to perform the winning song as a guest artist at the Singapore Islamic Hub Auditorium for Harmony Centre's Annual Interfaith Lecture events held on 29 September 2018.

She was the Percussion Section Leader of her school’s concert band from the year 2010 - 2012 and has performed on the Bass Drum and Xylophone for Cest La Vie at the Victoria Theatre and had entered the Singapore Youth Festival Band Competition where her school band won a Silver medal. She also joined a show choir competition, Ricola Swing! Show Choir Challenge Season 2 in Year 2011 and placed third with her group in the event. She has also done a Musical Theatre act with participants from John and Deniece Glee Studios in December 2016 for “Voices - A Festival of Song” which was held at the Esplanade Outdoor Theatre. During Singapore's 50th birthday celebration, she performed in the SG50 Choir on August 2015 at the National Stadium.

Mae initially started vocal training under Vocal Coach, Susanna Lau, for a year before joining LASALLE College of the Arts and is now training under the guidance of Vocal Instructor, Stella Zhou. She is also working hard on more original material, to be released in the near future. Her music influences include Sara Bareilles, Demi Lovato, Avril Lavigne and Carrie Underwood amongst many others.
